FASS: FACULTY OF ARTS AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

As one of the largest and oldest faculties in NUS, FASS has earned a strong reputation in education and research excellence with a comprehensive offering of humanities, social sciences and Asian studies in the international academic arena.

Riding on the Faculty's strengths and achievements in the field, FASStrack Asia was developed with the rigorous academic standards of NUS and places a keen emphasis on Asian-related topics and issues through the selection of different modules offered by FASS' departments.
